This role will appeal to someone with at least 3 years' experience in a similar role who is motivated and versatile with the ability to self-manage working both independently and as part of the wider technical team. A Team Player who enjoys working in a dynamic, fast paced environment, is happy to multitask, prioritise and keep a calm head.

All new starters undergo a probationary period with monthly meetings with their Line Manager to help stay on track, resolve any issues and identify training needs to help them achieve standard within 6 months. It's always varied and interesting with the aim to retain and develop employees within AMX.
